Monday 11th April 2016

Dear Parents,

On Thursday 14th April, our school will be celebrating Vaisakhi!

We encourage children to come to school wearing traditional Asian clothes in the Khalsa colours of:

- Royal Blue
- Orange
- Yellow
- White

To ensure children's heads are covered at all times, we ask that all children also wear their normal Orange School Patka/Dastaar on the day.

As with all mufti days, we ask that to provide your child with a £1 contribution.

Some activities on the day will include:

- Changing the Nishan Sahib
- Special Vaisakhi Assembly
- Shabad Singing
- Langar style lunch as it is at Harmandir Sahib
- Vaisakhi related activities in class

We would like to invite all parents to join us in a special showing of the Vaisakhi Assembly at 2pm in the School Gurdwara. This will last until 2.45pm.

May we extend warm wishes for Vaisakhi to you all!

With kind regards,

Mr. M. Singh
(Sikh Studies Coordinator)
