

Spelling Dictation Sentences

twinkl

Week 1

I don't want that cookie, I want the other one.

Miss Tooley told Sahad's mother how proud she was of him.

Grace followed her brother up the tree.

There was nothing left in the cupboard after the lion came to tea.

The day after Sunday is Monday.

Granny sent me some money in my birthday card.

Charlie helped Dad put the fresh duvet cover on the bed.

The bees buzzed as they made delicious honey.

I would like to be a scientist and discover new planets.

I wonder how the story will end...

Week 2

She slid the ancient key into the rusty lock.

On this island, there are no cars; everyone travels by donkey.

The cheeky monkey stole my hat!

Santa silently squeezed down the dusty chimney.

The beautiful valley took my breath away.

I added all my favourite foods to the shopping trolley.

The turkey gobbled noisily on the farm.

My whole family went to the ice hockey match together.

The secret ingredient in my grandma's famous stew is parsley.

The adventurers went on a long and perilous journey.

Week 3

What do you want to eat for lunch?

Iris loves to watch the raindrops travel down the window.

I wander through the fields as lonely as a cloud.

What is the quantity of eggs needed for the recipe?

It was a bit of a squash when everyone had squeezed into the car.

Kindness is his best quality.

I wish my brother and sister wouldn't always squabble.

The litter-picking squad took their duties very seriously.

I was a bit scared the first time I went on a quad bike.

Aisha and Millie made up quickly after their little quarrel.

Week 4

Can you repeat the word, please?

Rae put a lot of hard work into the science project.

The quick bird caught the pink, wriggling worm.

When I'm older, I would like to travel the world.

I wanted to stay up later but it wasn't worth arguing with Mum.

At Halloween, everyone tried to think of the worst trick.

The school raised money to help children affected by war.

It is wonderful to feel the warm sun on your face after a cold winter.

Lucy ran happily towards her auntie.

When my teacher was in hospital, we sent cards to her hospital ward.

Week 5

I like watching documentaries on television.

The pirates finally found the splendid, glittering treasure.

Sophie had her usual for lunch: cheese sandwiches and an apple.

Ms Fox taught us a great way to do division.

Imran's vision was so much better after he got glasses.

The teacher thanked me for sharing the story with the class and I said it was my pleasure.

The whole class had to work together to measure the length of the playground.

Dad wore a suit to the wedding because it was a special occasion.

Frances didn't usually let other people ride her bike but she made an exception for me.

In the summer holidays, we will go to the leisure centre every day.

Week 6

If you roll an even number, move two spaces forward.

Carry the china carefully so it doesn't break.

I don't eat steak because I'm a vegetarian.

My stepdad is a great singer but a terrible dancer.

It's important to move as much as you can everyday.

Can you prove that your answer is correct?

Tyrone went to swimming lessons to improve his front crawl.

I'm sure my family won't mind if you stay for dinner.

Beat the eggs with the sugar to make a fluffy mixture.

The mermaid had one green eye; the other was bright blue.

twinkl