

The Story of Diarmuid and Gráinne

You have been given the task of pretending you are Fionn, after discovering a boar has wounded Diarmuid. You know you could save him with your healing powers but you hesitate. Your son, Oisín, begs you to save his life. Write the conversation between you and Oisín below.

Name of Character	Words Spoken

Draw a picture of where this conversation took place and the characters involved.

