

The Story of Diarmuid and Gráinne

You have been given the task of pretending you are Gráinne at her engagement party. You see Diarmuid and immediately fall in love with him. Write the conversation between you and Diarmuid. You declare your love for him, ask him to escape with you and eventually put a geis on him in order to get away.

Name of Character	Words Spoken

Draw a picture of where this conversation took place and the characters involved.

