Look at these Roman sculptures. Why don't you try one of yourself? The girl in this picture is an example to show expression. Use the dough to make your own – remember: You need an adult to help you with this! Don't touch the oven without an adult!
Hint: Print off a picture of yourself first and study the features on your face before you begin.

Some more ideas: Make a rainbow and paint it! Then, leave it outside in your front garden to light up somebody's day or display it in your window!
