Positive Parent Quotes

The values that are instilled into students are very inspiring. They are not only achieving highly academically but are also becoming responsible people that will make great contributions in the world

All the staff are caring and create a great atmosphere for children to thrive and develop

Community spirit

Faith school that is important for us

Great Ethos, good atmosphere, happy children, parents generally pulling in the same direction. Good Management, Great Location and facilities.

As far as I know the school has very good ambience for the children to learn various things related to their education as well as other things. Some of my friends children are studying in this school so I know that school has high standard of discipline and behaviour , so many extra curricular activities for children's brain development , dedicated teachers and many more . Most importantly, we belong to a proper Sikh family, so my son can learn a lot about Sikh culture and beliefs.

The school has great values and the teachers push the children to excel

The way they bring Sikhi into the pupils daily lives

Faith based education, discipline, Vegetarian Food offering, hard working and friendly staff members.
